CORPORATE CONFESSION OF SIN:

“Our Father, Who art in Heaven, You created me from the mire beneath my feet, from the dust to which I shall return. Yet, it is sin that is my true and deepest shame. I have trampled Your law times without number. How can I ever be proud? Lowest abasement is my due place. Yet I discover pride within! Help me to see myself in Your sight, then pride must wither, decay, die, perish. When I leave duties undone, may Your Spirit convicting me of sin strip me of pride, deepen me in devotion to You, and quicken me to a more watchful care. When I fall, let me hide myself in my Redeemer’s righteousness, and when I escape temptation, may I ascribe all deliverance to Your grace. Keep me humble, meek, lowly. Let me be as my Savior Himself! Amen.”

(Adapted from The Valley of Vision, p. 88).
