CORPORATE CONFESSION OF SIN:

Eternal God and most merciful Father: we confess and acknowledge in Your divine presence, that we are miserable sinners conceived and born in sin, so that in our flesh there is no goodness. For our flesh rebels against the Spirit and transgresses Your holy commandments, and purchases our death and damnation.

Yet, O heavenly Father, we are grieved with our sins committed against You, and we repent and humbly beg You, for Jesus Christ's sake, to show mercy on us and forgive us all our sins, and to increase Your Holy Spirit in us that we would bring forth fruits in agreement with Your blessed will.

We thank You Holy Spirit for assuring our consciences that our merciful Father loves us through Jesus Christ so that nothing is able to remove Your heavenly grace and favor from us.

To You, O Father, with the Son and the Holy Spirit, be all glory and honor, world without end. Amen. (Adapted from Laing, Works of John Knox, 4:181-182)

CONFESSION OF FAITH: Chalcedonian Creed

We, then, following the holy fathers, we all with one accord teach men to acknowledge one and the same Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, at once complete in Godhead and complete in manhood, truly God and truly man, consisting also of a reasonable soul and body; of one substance with the Father as regards his Godhead, and at the same time of one substance with us as regards his manhood; like us in all respects, apart from sin; as regards his Godhead, begotten of the Father before the ages, but yet as regards his manhood begotten, for us men and for our salvation, of Mary the Virgin; one and the same Christ, Son, Lord, Only-begotten, recognized in two natures, without confusion, without change, without division, without separation; the distinction of natures being in no way annulled by the union, but rather the characteristics of each nature being preserved and coming together to form one person and subsistence, not as parted or separated into two persons, but one and the same Son and Only-begotten God the Word, Lord Jesus Christ; even as the prophets from earliest times spoke of him, and our Lord Jesus Christ himself taught us, and the creed of the fathers has handed down to us.
