CORPORATE CONFESSION OF SIN:

We praise You and You only, O Lord, for You alone are worthy. You have redeemed us by grace alone through faith alone, not of works, lest anyone should boast. We are Your workmanship in Christ Jesus created for good works unto Your glory, not our own. All that we are, we owe to You. Before You, therefore, we confess the crime of pride: seen in our boasting of self, not of Christ; seen in our desire to honor ourselves before men, not simply to bring honor to Christ. Redeemed by Your obedient Son alone, we have not glorified You only as we ought. Have mercy on us and cause us to honor You and You only in all that we think, say, and do. We ask humbly in the Name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

(Psalm 148:13; Revelation 5:4, 9; Ephesians 2:8-10; Psalm 115:1; Luke 17:10; 1 Corinthians 15:10; Luke 18:9-14; John 3:30; John 14:13)

CONFESSION OF FAITH: WLC 72

Q. What is justifying faith?

A. Justifying faith is a saving grace, wrought in the heart of a sinner by the Spirit and word of God, whereby he, being convinced of his sin and misery, and of the disability in himself and all other creatures to recover him out of his lost condition, not only assenteth to the truth of the promise of the gospel, but receiveth and resteth upon Christ and his righteousness, therein held forth, for pardon of sin, and for the accepting and accounting of his person righteous in the sight of God for salvation.
