CORPORATE CONFESSION OF SIN:

Our Father, we confess our sins to You because You promised to forgive and cleanse those who humbly cry out to You for mercy. Therefore, we confess that we have set our affections on things beneath, which should have been set on things above, where our treasure is, where Christ sits on the right hand of God. We have followed after lying vanities, and forsaken our own mercies; we have forsaken the fountain of living waters, for cisterns, broken cisterns that can hold no water. We have panted after the dust of this earth, and have been full of care about food, drink, and clothing—the things pagans seek after. We have lifted up our souls unto vanity, and set our eyes upon that which is not; we have looked at the things that are seen, which are temporal; but the things that are eternal, we have forgotten or neglected. Forgive us, O Lord, and cause our eyes to be fixed upon Christ, the Author and Perfector of our Faith. We pray in the Name of Jesus our Lord and Savior, Amen.

(adapted from Matthew Henry’s A Method for Prayer, pp. 46-47)

CONFESSION OF FAITH: WLC 45

Q. How doth Christ execute the office of a king?

A. Christ executeth the office of a king, in calling out of the world a people to himself, and giving them officers, laws, and censures, by which he visibly governs them; in bestowing saving grace upon his elect, rewarding their obedience, and correcting them for their sins, preserving and supporting them under all their temptations and sufferings, restraining and overcoming all their enemies, and powerfully ordering all things for his own glory, and their good; and also in taking vengeance on the rest, who know not God, and obey not the gospel.
