CORPORATE CONFESSION OF SIN:

Our heavenly Father, like the man who looks in a mirror, goes away, and immediately forgets what he saw, so we have been hearers but not doers of your Word. Our hearts have been dull, and we have not always obeyed Your Word as those hungering and thirsting for righteousness. Likewise, we have not always fully valued the Lord’s Supper, humbly examining and judging ourselves as we ought. So, we have robbed you of the fruit that we should have borne to Your glory and of the strength that we should have drawn from your grace by faith. We have, at times, been distracted by the cares of this world and have allowed the persecution of this world and the fear of man to choke out our obedience and faithfulness to You. Forgive us for our lack of faith and obedience. We pray in Jesus’ Name. Amen.

(Matthew 6:9; James 1:23-24; Matthew 5:6; Matthew 13:15ff; 1 Corinthians 11:27-29; John 14:13-14)

CONFESSION OF FAITH: WLC 35

Q. How is the covenant of grace administered under the New Testament?

A. Under the New Testament, when Christ the substance was exhibited, the same covenant of grace was and still is to be administered in the preaching of the word, and the administration of the sacraments of baptism and the Lord's Supper; in which grace and salvation are held forth in more fulness, evidence, and efficacy, to all nations.
