CORPORATE CONFESSION OF SIN:

Our Lord, You Who humble Yourself to see the things in the heavens and in the earth, what is man that you are mindful of him or the son of man that you visit him? By grace alone, look upon us with mercy and tender compassions, we pray, as we humble ourselves before you and confess our many sins to You, most merciful God, humble and lowly in heart. For, our conduct has not been without covetousness, nor have we learned in every state to be content with such things as we have. We have minded the things of the flesh more than the things of the Spirit, and have lived in pleasure in the earth, and been reckless, and have nourished our hearts as in the day of slaughter. We have made provisions for the flesh, to fulfill the lusts of it: even those lusts that war against our souls; and we have acted as if we had been lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God. Forgive us and cleanse us from all unrighteousness, we pray!

(adapted from Matthew Henry’s A Method of Prayer, pp. 50-51)

CONFESSION OF FAITH: Heidelberg Catechism #1

Q. What is thy only comfort in life and death?

A. That I with body and soul, both in life and death, am not my own, but belong unto my faithful Saviour Jesus Christ; who, with his precious blood, has fully satisfied for all my sins, and delivered me from all the power of the devil; and so preserves me that without the will of my heavenly Father, not a hair can fall from my head; yea, that all things must be subservient to my salvation, and therefore, by his Holy Spirit, He also assures me of eternal life, and makes me sincerely willing and ready, henceforth, to live unto him.
