The LORD executes righteousness and justice for all who are oppressed. He made known His ways to Moses, His acts to the children of Israel. The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in mercy. He will not always strive with us, nor will He keep His anger forever. He has not dealt with us according to our sins, nor punished us according to our iniquities. For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is His mercy toward those who fear Him; As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us. (Psalm 103:6-12)

CORPORATE CONFESSION OF SIN:

Our Father, Faithful and True in all things, hear now our confession and have mercy upon our souls. For, we have put far from our thoughts the coming Day of Judgment, and in our prosperity we have assumed that tomorrow will come as it always has. We have encouraged our souls to take their ease, to eat and drink, and be merry, when perhaps this night our souls may be required of us. We have been ready to trust in uncertain riches and our own plans for the future, more than in the living God. We have put confidence in the things of this world and leaned upon our own understanding, failing constantly to rely upon You and submit to You in all things. We have convinced ourselves that our way is better than Yours at times. Forgive us, O Lord! For, we know that You, Who even gave Your only and beloved Son for us, will always work good for us. You will not withhold any good thing from us. Forgive us our doubts and our unfaithfulness to You and give us hearts that trust in You fully! Amen.
